Introduction to ADO.NET

Sr. No.	Assignment Question
1.	Pixel Inc. is a Computer Graphics Laboratory in Massachusetts. They are currently exploring in the field that includes volume rendering, 3D scanning, image-based rendering, and virtual reality. The development team of Pixel Inc. decides to add a new feature in their existing software. They make up their mind to enable their software retrieve the details of the client orders, on the basis of a bill number. Using Windows Forms and C# language, perform the following operations: Ø Create a form that connects to the SQL Server database. The form must contain the following fields: 1. Text box to enter the Bill Number 2. Button to retrieve the particulars 3. Text box to retrieve number of prints outs 4. Text box to retrieve the cost of the job 5. Exit button When the user enters the bill number and clicks the appropriate button, it should retrieve the details of the corresponding fields in the form. Test the output by compiling and executing the program using Visual Studio 2005 IDE.

--- End of Assignments---